to recruit from the community. We have also reposted our jobs at the local colleges to try to recruit from the student populations.

CSEA REPORT:

Ms. Hovel stated the MOU for the bilingual stipend did not pass at the last CSEA Chapter meeting.

There will be a CSEA Job Steward Training from September to November in La Mesa and she is hoping to get some new people together to attend this training.

Ms. Hovel also stated that there will be more money available from the state to fund grants that help our classified employees who are pursuing a degree to become a teacher. All the employees who received the grant had a meeting last Wednesday. They each received about $3000.

Discussion: Mr. LeMay asked if we pursue aides who move on to get their credentials. Ms. Reede stated that they all have opportunities like everyone else. We allow them to do their Student Teaching with us and many leave their classified positions to move on to certificated positions within our district.

DISTRICT REPORT:

Ms. Reede introduced Ms. D'Ambroso, the new Director of Certificated Human Relations. She was welcomed by the Commissioners. Ms. D'Ambroso said she was glad to be there and that she would have a report at the next meeting.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT:

Ms. Reede updated the Commission on the Classification study. She is working on it and plans to have a first and second reading in October.

Ms. Reede reminded the Commission regarding the Special Meeting for an employee appeal would be held on September 6, 2017.
